

2024 National Gold Medal Public Agency Application Questions & Judging Criteria

This document provides the 2024 National Gold Medal Award application questions with assigned point values, maximum word count per question, and the criteria used to assist the National Gold Medal Award Judges assess the applicant's responses. It is intended as a guide; judges apply their own experiences and knowledge in their assessment.

Applicants should use this document as a guide in framing their responses however, they are encouraged to remember their agency is unique in its enabling legislation, resources, constituents, and challenges. The National Gold Medal Award seeks to identify those entities (public agencies, state park systems, and armed forces installation programs) that demonstrate excellence in managing and delivering high quality parks and recreation services.

PLEASE NOTE: The total word count and point value varies for each question.

- 1. Recognizing each public park and recreation agency is unique in its purpose, mission, culture, financing, enabling legislation, etc., describe what your agency does well in managing its resources to meet its stated goals.

MAXIMUM WORDS 300 / MAXIMUM 15 POINTS

This question is for the agency to explain in broad terms what they perceive they do well. Why do they believe they are a national leader in managing their agency? This is question is not about the magnitude of their resources but how well they fulfill their mission and serve their community using whatever resources they have. The response should be linked to their enabling legislation, their master or strategic plan and their mission. How well do they execute, demonstrate, and measure advancement toward their mission? The response is intended to tie what the agency was created to do with how efficient and effective they are at achieving its mission.

- 2. Based upon your response to Question 1, what measurements is your agency using to evaluate what you say you are doing well? Cite three examples of the agency's assessments or measurements and the types of data collected.

MAXIMUM WORDS 240 / MAXIMUM 10 POINTS

In Question 1 the agency is asked to state why it is a leader in managing its resources to meet its goals using the resources it has. This question asks the agency to specifically explain what it is assessing and how it is measuring its performance in the areas where it is excelling. Agencies are to provide three examples of what the agency is measuring and data that supports the performance.

- 3. Well managed agencies know the source(s) of its funds, regardless of the amount, and plans how it will utilize those funds. Describe the agency's fiscal management strategies and cite two examples of how the agency allocates its funds to respond to its stated mission and goals.

MAXIMUM WORDS 240 / MAXIMUM 10 POINTS

This question seeks to learn the agency's overall fiscal planning philosophy and how it applies the money it receives or generates to meet its stated mission and goals. This question is not about the amount of funds the agency receives. The focus is on what the agency does with the funds it does receive. Response should share the agency's fiscal management philosophy as well as two actions or strategies it uses in allocating its funds.

- 4. Well managed agencies consistently communicate internally to ensure their team members are informed and engaged; they are included in the decision-making processes; and they are motivated to succeed.
